What is Nest?

The Nest program is an incentive based program for income-eligible pregnant women, post-partum mothers, and families with children up to 5 years of age. Families can earn incentive points for healthy behaviors such as keeping doctor appointments and attending parent and preventative educational classes. The points are then redeemed for incentive items, items ranging from diapers, wipes, bathing supplies, baby clothes, and educational books just to name a few.

Here's a summary of the classes this month: (On Facebook Live & In-Person Classes)

What food to make for picky eaters– We will go through different foods and meals to make life easier while feeding a picky eater.

First Time Parenting– Ways to figure out you and your partners effective parenting styles and must knows before baby comes.

Play is Learning- Parents and children playing together and learning new ways of healthy play!

Parenting for healthy emotional development– The development of emotions gives one the ability to be empathetic c to others, handle conflicts in the right wat and understand the importance of regulating emotions for both parents and children.

WIC– WIC will provide an educational video on nutrition.

Allen Women's Health– Educations video of Allen Women's Health choice.

Molina HealthCare Video– Moline Healthcare will do a live presentation about their program.

Obesity in children and how to help as their parent– The US tops the list of counties in the world with the highest rate of obesity, we will learn and go over the importance to maintaining a healthy weight and healthy ways to achieve a healthy life-style.

Steps into toddlerhood– What to expect as your child grows bigger and steps into toddlerhood, what changes?

These online classes for the month will cover all counties (Black Hawk and Grundy). Points will still be given as normal. You will need to fill out the survey that I post in the comments of the class in order to get your points. If you are not able to watch the class live, you can watch it afterwards to get points as long as you fill out the survey!
